

Herons are wading birds. They walk through shallow water to find food. How can you tell if a bird is a heron? Watch it in flight. If its neck is S-shaped, it's a heron! Their favorite meal is fish, but they will eat almost any small animal.